PAD AGREEMENT - ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

Part 1: Donor Information

Please completely fill out the donor information to ensure the payment can be processed and charitable donation receipt issued if applicable. Note: as per CRA policy, donation receipts can only be issued in the name of the true donor (e.g. payments made by a corporation cannot be receipted to an individual), and are non-refundable. Gifts made from a joint account of spouses may be issued in either or both names. If acting as a trustee or agent for another in making gift, please contact us first.

Generally, eligible gifts are issued receipts annually by the end of February. If you have special requirements, please contact us.

2. Bank Account Information

The branch transit number, financial institution number, and bank account number are located at the bottom edge of your cheque. Branch transit numbers are always 5 digits long and financial institution numbers are always 3 digits long. Bank account numbers may be up to 12 digits long. Below is an example of a cheque:

If you complete the bank account information, it is not strictly necessary to provide a void cheque (or equivalent from the bank); however, we nonetheless suggest providing so that we can verify the information submitted before processing. Furthermore, we may request additional documentation to verify your identity and/or banking information.

3. Pre-Authorized Debit (PAD) Details

Please fully complete the PAD details, sign and date. If the PAD is drawn on a joint account, both account holders are required to sign and date.

If not designated, the donation will be accepted as a gift to the general fund.
